At the end of two years Albert Waldon shall have the care and custody of Neola and George Waldon regardless of their wishes, provided he satisfy the court he is fit and proper to care for them.

A bill for separate maintenance was granted Margaret Kempster of Lee Center from her husband, Rev. Frederick Kempster. The petition of M. H. Serns for decree of divorce from his wife, Hattie Serns, was dismissed on motion of the plaintiff.

HAROLD KONKRETE, COMPANION OF CAPT. ANGLE, DIED AT AMBOY FRIDAY.

DID NOT REGAIN CONSCIOUSNESS

Harold Konkrete, the Amboy youth who was with Capt. Harvey J. Angle of this city when he met death in the overturning of an automobile on the Amboy-Lee Center road on Tuesday night died at Amboy at 6:30 Friday night without having regained consciousness. From the time he was found in the road until his death the only evidence of life was the regular respiration and a slight twitching of the muscles in the neck. There were no marks of violence anywhere on his body and physicians are puzzled over the cause of death.

The young man, who was 21 years old, was the only son of Mr. and Mrs. James Konkrete of Amboy, and they are prostrated over his death, following their long vigil, watching for a sign of returning consciousness.

PRINCIPLES ABOVE AMBITION BRINGS POLITICAL HARMONY

COL. FRANK LOWDEN BELIEVES REPUBLICANS ARE UNITED BEHIND PARTY PRECEPTS.

SEES PARTY'S RESPONSIBILITY

Says A Democracy Must Be Equal to Monarchy In Every Efficiency Move.

In addressing briefly the Swedish-American Republican League of Illinois at Princeton, March 9th, Colonel Frank O. Lowden said in part:

I see by your program that your slogan this evening is "team work" or harmony. * * * On this question of harmony I want to call your attention to one thing, and that is, harmony comes when we put principles above ambition, and that every fight in the party that has led to defeat at the polls has been a fight for leadership and not a fight for principles. I want to call your attention to the fact that in 1912 the great split in our party which then came did not come because one part of the republican party believed in one set of principles and the other part in another set of principles. The fact is that under what ever banner you gentlemen marched in that campaign you claimed to be the only real republicans, and that was equally true of those who followed Roosevelt and those who followed Taft. Now then, that having been simply a difference of leadership and not a difference over principles, or, course, we are together again—this time, because a party is composed of the rank and file. The leaders are but the product of the party and if all the leaders on either side in the Chicago convention were to die tonight, the republican party would live as long as its principles survived and as long as the rank and file believed in those principles. And we shall have harmony. We shall have some little differences probably. I believe that Col. Smith and these other candidates for governor—there might be some slight differences between my friend Colonel Smith, my friend Mr. Russell, my friend Mayor Bennett of Rockford—but as long as they and all other candidates put principles to the front, we will have harmony when the primaries are over, and we will march under a common banner to the greatest victory.

Public Utilities Board Makes Important Ruling on Moot Question.

Springfield, Ill., Mar. 11.—On a stipulation between Meyer J. Stelp and the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois, the state public utilities commission has decided that the company had no right to cut off Stelp's gas for failure to pay for goods purchased from the company on the installment plan. The bigger question involved, the right of a public service company to sell stoves, etc., will be submitted to the commission in briefs and Stelp will dismiss his court action to compel the commission to hear his case.

Eldena Threatened By Fire; Railroad Ties Were Burned

Huge Pile Of Creosote - Soaked Timbers Destroyed - Wind Fanned Flames

The village of Eldena was threatened with destruction by fire Friday afternoon when a pile of Illinois Central railroad ties, soaked in creosote, caught fire and burned fiercely. The fire started in grass near the ties soon after the local freight had gone south at 12:15 o'clock and in a short time the big pile of oil-soaked timbers, fanned by the high wind, had become a mass of flame.

The wind blew the burning embers into the Glessner lumber yards and even across the tracks into the residence section. Prompt and continuous action by the residents kept these embers from igniting other property and in a short time after the outbreak of the fire an Illinois Central engine, equipped with big tank and hose, arrived from Amboy to fight the blaze. It was not until late in the evening that the fire was extinguished. About 500 ties, valued at $1 each, were destroyed.

OLD FASHIONED MAN OF SENATE IS DEAD

HENRY GASSAWAY DAVIS SUGGESTED TO GRIPPE AT WASHINGTON TODAY

WAS DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE

At Age of 84 He Was Running Mate Of Alton B. Parker—Was Very Wealthy

(Associated Press) Washington, Mch. 11.—Henry Gassaway Davis died here today at the age of 93. His death was caused by gripple.

Senator Henry Gassaway Davis was a political epoch of American progress for more than three quarters of a century. He was the "old fashioned gentleman" in the Senate. His utterances were those of the old Jeffersonian days.

"Liberty and free government have always been secured at the cost of great sacrifices," he said on one occasion. "But history teaches us that both can be easily lost without the knowledge of the people."

It is significant that he was born in the same year, 1823, at Woodstock, Md., that the Monroe Doctrine became a fundamental principle in American politics. During his distinguished career he fought to maintain it. He later represented the United States at two Pan American conferences at which by his personality and speeches he strove to strengthen the bonds of friendship between North and South America.

His Political Career

Senator Davis' active political career began the year after the Civil war. He was elected a member of the House of Delegates of the new state of West Virginia, and served as state senator.

West Virginia sent him to United States Senate as its first Democratic representative in 1871. He served two terms with distinction. He ceaselessly urged Congress to help the farmers by establishing an agricultural department. His own bills failed in passing but he lived to see the day when his far sightedness was recognized.

A familiar figure in presidential campaigns.

AMERICAN WOUNDED WHEN BARK IS SUNK WITHOUT WARNING

TORPEDOING OF NORWEGIAN BARK SILIUS REGARDED SERIOUSLY IN WASHINGTON.

FIERCE FIGHT AROUND VERDUN

Germans Have Reached Slopes Leading To Fort Vaux, Paris Announced Today.

(Associated Press)

American Consul Casborne, who is stationed at Havre, France, reports that the Norwegian bark Silius, bound from New York to Havre, was torpedoed without warning during the night of March 9, and that the seven American passengers aboard were rescued.

London reports the loss of the Silius with three of her crew.

One American Shot.

Paris newspapers state that John Hartman, aged 18, one of the Americans on the Silius, was shot in the legs. The owners of the Silius state that there were only four Americans aboard and that they were all members of the crew.

Is Serious Affair.

State department officials at Washington who could be seen today view the attack on the Silius as a serious affair, but will take no action until further information is received.

On Verdun Front.

Violent fighting for the possession of Fort Vaux continues. The Germans are in possession of some houses in the eastern part of the town, Paris says, and have reached the slopes leading to the fort. Berlin announced the capture of French positions 1400 yards wide and two-thirds of a mile deep near Rheims.

Cabinet Resigned.

The Portuguese cabinet has resigned to give place to a defensive government. The German minister has left Lisbon for Madrid.

To Remove Mine Field.

Stockholm, Mar. 11.—The Swedish government has decided to remove the German mine field off Falsterbo which caused the loss of the steamer Martha. The press supports the government in this decision and several newspapers declare that the German object in the laying of these mines is to prevent all traffic between the Baltic and the North Sea.

Swedish Steamer Sinks.

Copenhagen, Mar. 11.—The Swedish steamer Martha struck a mine in Falsterbo sound and sank within Swedish territorial waters, according to dispatches received here. Her crew was saved.

French Sailing Vessel Sunk.

London, Mar. 11.—The French steel four-masted sailing vessel Ville du Havre has been sunk with a loss of two lives. Twenty-six members of the crew were saved. The Ville du Havre displaced 3,109 tons and was owned at Nantes. She was built in 1899.

The wind fanned the flames and they were eating into the roof when the firemen arrived. Embers fell into the attic and two chemicals were required before the fire was put out. The damage is about $40.

ASCERTAINING COST OF KEEPING SCHOOL

SUPT. MILLER SENDING BLANKS TO SCHOOL SECRETARIES FOR INFORMATION.

PAID FOR TUITION FROM FUND

High school tuition blanks have been mailed to all secretaries of the boards of education in high school districts of the county by Superintendent L. W. Miller, to be filled in with the names of tuition pupils, number of district, name of school and number of years' work in the high school the pupils have taken, and must be returned to the county superintendent by March 15th.

On the reverse side of the blank is a schedule to be filled out covering the actual expense of conducting the high school. The expense varies in the different schools, depending on number of teachers employed and course of study taught. In the south side high school in Dixon the average cost of maintaining the school is a little more than $60.

As soon as these blanks are returned the money due the respective schools will be forwarded by the county superintendent, being taken from the distributable fund received from the state. The money left will be distributed pro rata to the school districts according to the number of children of school age shown by the census taken in June of last year. This money is supposed to be in the hands of the school treasurers before the annual school meeting, April 4.

FUNSTON GIVEN FULL DISCRETION BY WASHINGTON

GENERAL WILL DETERMINE THE STRENGTH OF FORCE AND MANNER OF PROCEDURE TO GET VILLA BANDITS.

CARRANZA IS WILLING

REPLY TO U. S. REQUEST CITES TIME WHEN U. S. AND MEXICAN SOLDIERS CO-OPERATED.

ASKS RIGHT TO CROSS BORDER

(Associated Press)

Columbus, N. M., Mch. 11.—Gen. Funston announced that while he will have the direction of all military affairs on the border, the expedition into Mexico will be in charge of a brigadier general.

It is believed that Brigadier General Pershing will command the principal column in pursuit of Villa, Funston retaining the command of the general operations which it is expected will involve three or more columns. Aerial Squadrons.

A full aerial squadron will accompany the expedition, which will not be completed for two or three days, Funston announced.

Villa is said to be at Ascension, South Palomas with 300 men.

Fifty-seven dead Mexicans have been found in Columbus and vicinity as the result of Thursday's fight. Villa is said to have told his officers if the United States tried to invade Mexico Germany and Japan would interfere.

Washington, Mch. 11.—Instructions conveying full authority to Major General Funston, U. S. A., to dispatch a defensive expedition into Mexico in pursuit of Francisco Villa and his bandits, are today in Funston's hands and it is expected that United States troops will be over the border by nightfall.

Is Up to Funston.

Secretary of War Baker announced today that full discretion as to the number of men to be used and route to be followed had been left to Funston, and in accordance with the General's request the strictest secrecy will be observed by the War Department regarding its plans.

Carranza Asks Entry.

Gen. Carranza, provisional president of Mexico, has asked Washington for permission to send Mexican troops into the United States in pursuit of bandits.

Favorable Indications.

Carranza's request was contained in his reply to the American note asking permission to send U. S. troops into Mexico. Administration officials regard Carranza's proposal favorably, as it seems to indicate that he will not protest against American troops on Mexican soil. Such a reciprocal agreement would probably never result in a single Carranza soldier crossing the line, as the possibility of the bandits etaking refuge on American territory is very remote.

Cites Precedent.

Carranza cites that in 1880 American and Mexican soldiers joined hands in dispersing Indians who had left their reservation in the United States and had committed crimes in Chihuahua and Sonora.

Minor Depredations.

Depredations by small bands of Mexicans at a number of points on the American side of the border were reported late yesterday. No loss of life is reported.

Endorsed Wilson.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has unanimously endorsed the action of the president in sending troops to capture the Villa bandits.

Wilson In Touch.

President Wilson left today on the Mayflower for a week-end cruise on the Potomac. He is in close touch with the White House by wireless.

DOCTORS.

A doctor is a high grade mechanic who tinkers with the human machine and makes repairs and alterations at reasonable rates.

Doctors are so wise that they can tell what makes a man's great toe swell by looking at his grocery bill. A good doctor can take a drop of the blood of a total stranger, and after looking at it through a microscope, will often be able to shake hands with at least a dozen varieties of microbes, which are old friends of his. Some doctors are wiser than that. They are so wise that they can tell whether a patient needs 35 cents' worth of medicine or a $350 operation, without looking at him at all, provided they can find his rating in Bradstreet's. These doctors, like some wizards of finance, are considered too wise, however.

Doctors are manufactured by medical colleges in such quantities that a new doctor has to wait two years for the sick-list to catch up and give him his share of work. Medical students are very wild, wearing beards on the slightest provocation and going about with their pockets full of pickled ears from the dissecting room. But after they have settled down to practice, they become grave and dignified.

There is nothing more dignified than a very young doctor who is trying to diagnose a case of chickenpox.

freehand, without looking at the book except perhaps an old doctor, when he meets a young doctor who has had the audacity to come into the old doctor's town, and breathe up some of his air. Doctors are very formal and are stuffed full of ethics. Doctors must not advertise or encourage the public in any way, except by wearing tall silk hats and joining fraternal orders. Many a man who has acquired a rare and expensive disease has died of it, because the only doctor in his part who knows anything about it is sitting on the information as cautiously as a nineteen-year-old hen on a bushel of china eggs.

When a doctor has established his business, he calls it his practice. This is a poor name and should be abolished by law. It isn't comforting to a man with liver complaint to be asked who is practicing on him.

Doctors lead hard lives and only sleep now and then, owing to the great amount of sickness at night. They also have to trust in Providence for their pay. It is much easier to call a doctor 13 miles out into the country to subdue a mess of green corn that has insured than it is to drive in and pay him a year later. Doctors do more free work than any other class, except amateur orators, and we should not begrudge them a liberal fee when they sink a shaft into our interiors and rearrange our works.

Doctors were poor and oppressed until the vermiform appendix and the adenoid were discovered. Since then, however, they have prospered greatly, and are almost the only class who are able to make money by wearing out automobiles.

MOB WHIPS DOCTOR FOR BEATING WIFE

Alleville, Ill., Physician Accused of Great Brutality.

Mattoon, Ill., Mar. 11.—With their faces blackened, a band of men took Dr. C. W. Kimmery, physician of Alleville, ten miles northwest of Mattoon, from his home, tied him to a telephone pole, and whipped him until blood was drawn from his face and back. The whipping of Dr. Kimmery was due to a vicious assault he is alleged to have made upon Mrs. Kimmery.

Mrs. Kimmery is a patient in the Memorial hospital in this city. The superintendent of the hospital reports that her body is black and blue from head to foot, her face cut and lacerated. She is weak from exposure.

According to the story told by Mrs. Kimmery to her relatives Dr. Kimmery returned home intoxicated Tuesday night and assaulted her with a stove poker. She had been confined to her bed about ten days with pneumonia and bronchial trouble. Dr. Kimmery, she said, forced her to crawl under the bed, where he drenched her from time to time with water. There she was compelled to lie until he went to sleep. Then, Mrs. Kimmery says, she dragged herself to the telephone and summoned her father and other relatives.

Can You Write a Pulling Advertisement if You Are Paid For It?

OF COURSE YOU CAN IF YOU WILL TRY.

What we want is the original ideas and arguments of outsiders as to the superiority of Blewetts $38.00—5c Cigar, and why they are a real, honest and satisfactory smoke at this price.

There are ladies who can write just as strong, pulling advertisements on cigars, and who know as little about them as the men who write telling tales of millinery bargains.

We are going to pay you liberally for this by giving you $5.00 provided you write an advertisement that the Committee says is the best one submitted by a lady.

We are also going to make a similar generous offer to any gentleman who does the same thing, and he will receive a box of 150 Blewetts $38.00 Cigars for his efforts.

Why not try it? You may be surprised to find that you possess an unsuspected genius for advertisement writing and can really command a good salary, instead of doing whatever you may be doing.

ROOSEVELT'S NAME REMAINS ON BALLOT

Order to Take It Off Does Not Comply with Law.

New York, Mar. 11.—Frantic efforts in behalf of Colonel Roosevelt to get his name off the Illinois primary ballots for the presidential nomination of either the Progressive or Republican party have so far proved unavailing.

On Thursday after John W. McGrath, secretary to the colonel, had sent to Secretary of State Lewis G. Stevenson, of Illinois, a disavowal in the colonel's name of any and all delegates who filed petitions expressing a preference for the colonel, a telegram was received from Mr. Stevenson which read as follows:

"Cannot accept your telegram quoting Theodore Roosevelt as a compliance with the statute. The law requires an instrument in writing signed by the presidential candidate, and if executed by you in the name of Colonel Roosevelt, it must be accompanied by a sufficient power of attorney."

Fame first noticed him after the publication of his poem, "General William Booth Entering Heaven." Many beautiful extracts from his works were read. "The Music of the Indian" was most sympathetic, treated by Mrs. Allan Read, who at the close of her paper, sang two Indian songs. The program closed with a beautiful piano number by Miss Mary Hintz.

LOOK AT A CHILD'S TONGUE WHEN CROSS FEVERISH AND SICK

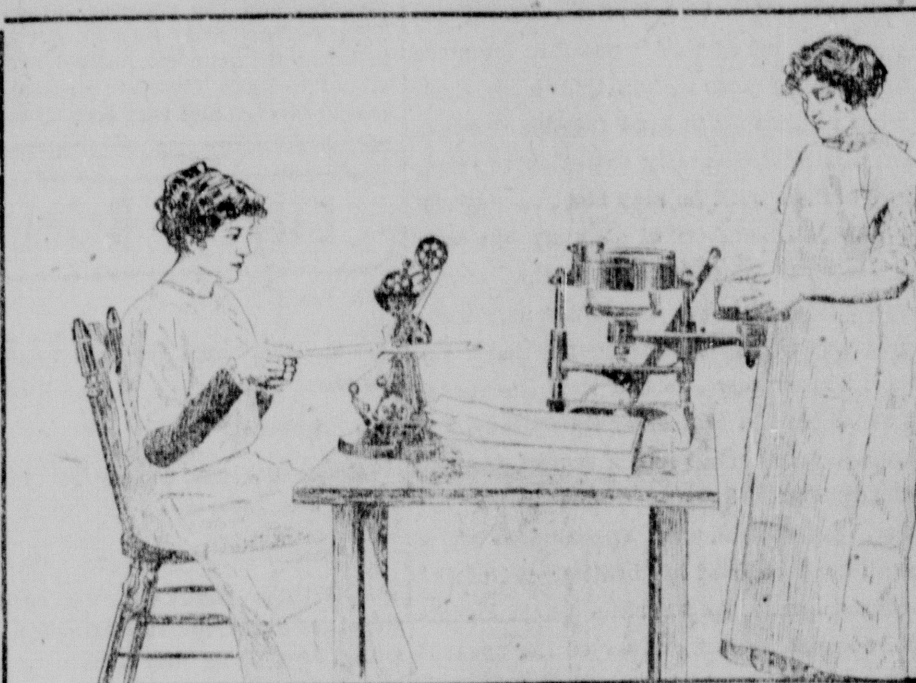

If tongue is coated, breath bad, stomach sour, clean liver and bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out of sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

TALK TO THEM IN "MEX." MR. PRESIDENT.

The action of the government of the United States in ordering the capture and punishment of General Francisco Villa certainly meets with the delighted approval of the citizens of this country and, though it makes no difference to us, it is very likely that such action likewise pleases the majority of the citizens of Mexico and the world at large.

The fact that stern action has been delayed too long is responsible for the death of many Americans is convincingly explained by many men who know Mexico and her conditions, but that part of the situation is history, and now there is something due to happen in Mexico that will make greater history.

The Mexican mind cannot absorb the philosophical, psychological, pacifist and other forms of advice that have been offered by the American government in the past two or three years. They are ordered to salute the flag and they tell us to go to grass, and we do it. They slaughter our citizens, outrage our women, burn and steal our property, and we send notes and make threats, but we do nothing more. This is the Mexican mind sees it, is nothing—could be nothing—but rank cowardice. The Mexican cannot understand why anybody should want to keep out of war if possible for mere humanitarian reasons. He thinks it is nothing more or less than a big "yellow streak" that keeps the gringo from retaliating in kind for the outrages perpetrated upon him, and therefore, the Mexican naturally comes to the conclusion that he is perfectly safe in any hellish trick he may elect to perform upon an American. The Mexican peon and all members of his class has been taught for years to hate and fear the American. Mothers are told that Gringo soldiers eat Mexican babies and the men all believe that America is only waiting a favorable opportunity to seize Mexico and grind her people under the iron heel of the American government. This natural, inbred hate, encouraged by the timidity of the American government in protecting its citizens, has made the Mexican insolent, murderous and half mad in his regard for an American citizen on either side of the border. Senator Sherman, in his speech in Princeton Thursday evening, said that he was appealed to by a Chicago man to aid him in getting the dead body of his brother out of the hands of the Mexicans who had murdered him. And Senator Sherman bitterly admitted that he could not find enough respect or fear of the government of the United States in the military authorities who occupied that zone to get the body of this man, just fifty miles out of Chihuahua.

No, the Mexican does not understand the kind of language the government of the United States has been using on him. President Wilson's intention was to keep out of war if possible, but his course has been misunderstood by the Mexican and the situation has been made worse. So it will be necessary to talk to the Mexican in Mex. He'll understand that, and when General Fred Funston gets through delivering his message the Mexican will know he has been told something.

The Mexican's way of letting you know that he doesn't like the way you are acting is to blow your head off or slip a knife between your ribs—if you are an American. So the only way that we can let the Mexican know that we don't like the way he is acting is to talk back to him in Mex., just the way he is doing.

May the U. S. troopers who go into Mexico after Pancho Villa and his murdering, thieving rabble of followers, bring back the dead carcass of the same Pancho Villa that all the world may know that the slaughter of innocent Americans and the shooting up of an American town brings swift retribution. May those troopers tread a path of death and destruction through the ranks of Villa's army of bandits and may the climbing Mexican sun bleach the bones of those who took part in the attack on Columbus the other night. Where on this earth is there a place so foul a being as the sort who sets fire to dwellings and shoots innocent, unarmed and helpless women and men when they run in terror from their homes? Mexico must be made to feel the heavy hand of Uncle Sam and must be made to know that this hand will always be ready to do swift justice whenever it is necessary to enforce respect for the Stars and Stripes and American citizens.

SAFETY FIRST.

In describing his cure for delirium tremens or any other form of distress from drinking too much alcohol, Dr. J. C. Doane of the Philadelphia hospital says the treatment is like that for tetanus, and it has succeeded in eleven cases out of twelve. It consists of withdrawing spinal fluids from the patient and injecting the same quantity of a 25 per cent solution of magnesium phosphate. Then the views of horrible creatures are no longer possible to the alcohol soaked mind, and the patient relaxes into a fine sleep which does the rest. This discovery is considered important in Philadelphia because the mayor has made it plain that nobody suffering from the effects of strong drink will be allowed to hold a position at the public expense.—Worcester Telegram.

BRAVERY BORN OF CONFIDENCE.

We are all swaggers and brave enough about sending troops into Mexico to get Villa. War with Villa's out-throat gang does not alarm the United States. Why? Because they are a ragged handful and we can and will thrash the day-lights out of their miserable bodies. But the situation would take on a different aspect if we were about to declare war on a real nation somewhere near our size.

Ah! We expected it. President Wilson has gone on a week-end cruise on the Mayflower, but is in touch with Washington by wireless, says today's dispatches. He's fixing it so that he can "rush back to Washington" at a moment's notice.

They say that while Mr. Wilson is hard to get roused, he is awful mad when he is mad, so now that he is getting stirred up he may show us some speed after all.

One good thing about raising a volunteer army to campaign in Mexico is that we would be giving some valuable training to a force of men that might come in quite handy some time soon.

Old Man Winter dies hard this year. His grip on the atmosphere is difficult to shake off.

Daddy's Bedtime

Story—How Little Kan Si Made Fans the Fashion in China.

He Told Her She Was Safe.

"AGES and ages ago," daddy told Jack and Evelyn, "when China, which is the oldest nation alive now, was very young indeed, in a great Chinese city there lived a beautiful maiden named Kan Si. She was an only child, and her father, Ho Lo, loved her very dearly. "One of the happiest holidays in old China was the Feast of the Lanterns, when everybody went out into the streets carrying the most beautiful, the strangest or the funniest lantern he could possibly make. When Kan Si was sixteen years old she begged her father to take her to the Feast of Lanterns, and, although Chinese girls rarely were allowed to go out so late at night, Ho Lo promised to take her. Kan Si was so delighted that she got all dressed in her pretty flowered kimono two hours before bedtime. "In China for a girl to go outdoors unmasked where any men except those of her own family could see her was thought to be improper. So, of course, Kan Si wore a little mask. The festival was charming, the lights wonderful and the lanterns delightful, and Kan Si enjoyed it all very much. But the square was crowded and the air hot, and, being in the habit of doing as she wished at home, she grabbed off her mask and used it to fan herself. Now, at this ancient time fans were unknown. Because of the law about women wearing masks on the street it was a very daring and new thing for Kan Si to unmask. But she looked so lovely waving her mask to and fro that every woman who saw her snatched off her mask and began fanning. Then the greatest fuss happened. The Chinamen were so angry at this happy breaking of an old law that they scolded the women and stopped the feast. "Next morning the emperor heard the news. So he took his court out into the square, called his people there and read the punishment for breaking old laws, and the punishment was death. As all the women marched past him, with poor little Kan Si at their head, there were curses muttered at her for bringing so much trouble upon others. But poor little Kan Si was broken hearted that she had caused so much trouble and was so weak from sorrow that she almost fainted in the square. To get some fresh air in her lungs she reached up and snatched off her mask again, fanning herself. The women groaned, and the emperor turned to see what they pointed their finger at. Then he saw little Kan Si, so beautiful and charming that he instantly fell in love with her. He hurried to her, told her she was safe, said the law was stupid to have kept her hidden so long from him, that fans must replace masks forever and that Kan Si must love him and be his bride."

conventions, Senator Davis led his delegates from West Virginia to the nomination hall on seven occasions, probably a record for such a service.

A year after he had retired voluntarily from the senate, he was urged to become a candidate for vice president on the ticket with Grover Cleveland. He declined. He accepted the nomination, however, as running mate with Alton B. Parker, and this became the oldest candidate, aged 81, ever selected for the office.

The venerable senator was not only a Democrat in politics, but he was a democrat in nature. He was the champion of liberty.

"Imperialism is hurtful and so horrible in a free government," he declared when accepting the nomination for vice president in the St. Louis convention of 1894. "The policy of imperialism is always dangerous to liberty."

Had Great Wealth
The great wealth of Senator Davis, estimated at $30,000,000 was acquired by his farsightedness and his ability to take advantage of opportunities. He was the eldest of five children, and at an early age, on his father's death, became the breadwinner of the family. At 19 years of age he was a farm hand on a Maryland plantation, having relinquished opportunities for an education in favor of the younger children.

His great business career began when he became brakeman on a freight train. His rise was rapid. At that time railroad trains did not run at night—it was too dangerous. At the approach of dusk they made for the nearest stations and waited for sunrise.

"It is a waste of time," insisted young Davis, who was then master of transportation.

He startled the veteran operators by sending out the first night train between Baltimore and Cumberland, and marked a new epoch in railroading. Davis increased his wealth at a rapid rate. As a merchant he made a small fortune. Then as a shareholder in West Virginia he came into possession of coal lands which were destined to make him a prince of wealth.

Two towns in West Virginia owe their existence and prosperity to his multi-millionaire statesman. One bears his name, Davis, and the other the name of his son-in-law and political opponent, Senator Elkins. In the latter city stand many memorials, hospitals, schools, children's homes and churches, commemorative of his generosity.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to keep her Locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the sulphur, and mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight an excellent variety of photo plays will be seen at the Princess, including a two reel Keystone comedy entitled "Dirt Work in a Laundry" featuring Ford Sterling and a host of other Keystone favorites. This comedy is positively the most uproarious ever seen in this city. The other feature is entitled "The Silent Trail" with Ashton Dearholt and Nan Cristy in the leading roles, an American western drama with an all star cast of players. The other reel is a Thanhouser drama entitled "The House Party at Carson Manor" with Morgan Jones in the leading role, a thrilling drama of love and intrigue.

On Sunday night a five reel Mutual Master Picture DeLuxe will be shown entitled "The Mill on the Floss" taken from George Eliott's beautiful story featuring Mignon Anderson and an all star cast of Thanhouser players. This feature abounds in wonderful stage setting and clever acting and is a feature which everyone should see.

On Monday night a Mutual Master picture entitled "The Strife Eternal" with Blanche Forsythe in the leading role will be shown.

FAMILY THEATRE.

The famous Triangle pictures will be shown at the Family this evening and the program will consist of "The Village Scandal" in two parts, with Raymond Hitchcock in the title role and Ward Mack in a six reel feature called "Oloha Oe." The Triangle pictures are great favorites with the theatre patrons and are always looked forward to with pleasure.

On Sunday night the vaudeville will be changed instead of Monday, as has been the custom, and one of the features will be the return of the Hawaiian Entertainers.

BOHEMIAN GIRL REVIVAL.

Joseph F. Sheehan, Mirth Carmen, Elaine De Sellem, Arthur Deane, Eugene Crowel and Phil Fein, conceded to be six of the highest priced stars on the American singing stage, head the famous all star revival of the BOHEMIAN GIRL, which comes to the Dixon Opera House Tuesday, March 21.

Each and every one of these stars was selected from a host of applicants for their particular excellence in the role they depict, and the success of the all star cast is now a matter of history. Many of our foremost critics pronounce it absolutely without a flaw and say it is the finest ever heard in the BOHEMIAN GIRL; add to this such other principals as Dave Cronberger and Lillian Hall in minor roles and the specially selected chorus, under the direction of Basil Horsfall, the eminent conductor, and you have an ensemble seldom, if ever, equalled in the annals of the stage.

Of the BOHEMIAN GIRL itself little need be said; from one end of the country to the other it has been proclaimed the greatest comic opera of the day; its beautiful ballads, "Then You'll Remember Me," "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls," "The Heart Bowed Down," "Bliss Forever Past," "The Fair Land of Poland" and kindred others, together with the tuneful choruses, the quaint and beautiful costumes and picturesque stage settings, have endeared it to the hearts of untold thousands.

FLORA DEVOSS.

As a comedienne Miss Flora DeVoss needs no introduction to Dixon theatre goers or play goers of the middle west and north. She will appear in the role of Flotsam, in "The Girl Out Yonder," at the Dixon opera house for one performance, Sunday evening, March 12. Her manager, J. B. Rotnour, does not hesitate to say that never before in the history of the company has there been assembled greater dramatic talent than associated with Miss DeVoss this season. The play is a favorite comedy drama of Miss DeVoss and has never been presented in Dixon before. Special scenery is carried and used for the production. Among the members well known in support of Miss DeVoss are Jos. Keenan, David E. Curtis, Thos. Fitzgerald, Ted Newman, Edmund Flaig, Charles H. Becker, Miss Stella Andrews, Miss Gladys Poirer, Miss Elanore LaCroix. Popular prices will prevail for the engagement with the advance sale of tickets now selling.

MYSTIC WORKERS HAD GREAT MEETING HERE

TEN LODGES REPRESENTED AT BIG SESSION HAD AT ARMORY FRIDAY EVE

Rock Falls Members, 110 Strong. Came in Special Cars—Dixon Members are Happy

An exceptionally large meeting was held by the Mystic Workers Friday evening when a large number of worthies gathered in the Armory hall, to witness the initiation of a class of candidates.

At about 8:30, the visitors, who had been invited from Rock Falls, marched into the hall 110 strong. The Rock Falls people have lots of lodges, and they came to Dixon to see our degree team, and to witness a false rumor here that all our members would be barred from this meeting. This statement was unauthorized by the lodge, and is directly opposite to their sentiment. Nevertheless this rumor kept many of our most loyal worthies away from the meeting. The Prefect requested that all notices pertaining to matters of the lodge to go through the hands of the Press Correspondent.

The degree team put on the work in a very impressive manner, under the able management of the Drillmaster, A. H. Beckingham, and the visiting members praised their work to the highest degree.

Prefect Mrs. Jesse Donichy, Monitor Mowrer, Banker Mrs. Ford France, and Deputy C. A. Staples were among the number of Rock Falls members who spoke at the meeting. George W. Howe, of Morrison, first Supreme Master of the Mystics, gave a very inspiring talk. Worthy Howe is a veteran of the Civil war, and he continues to help his country and fellow men by helping the Mystic Workers in their great work. Worthy Oles, also of Morrison, gave a short talk.

Ten lodges were represented at this meeting, their worthies from Elgin, Fulton and Sterling, Chicago and other lodges of neighboring towns present.

After the meeting a dance was held. The large floor was filled until supper time. The Bartholomew orchestra furnished the music for the evening.

A delicious two course supper was served to nearly 300. The committee handled the large crowd so as to bring a great deal of credit to themselves and the local lodge and certainly they deserve great credit for their untiring services.

After supper the crowd resumed dancing until the wee small hours, when the Rock Falls folks left us declaring they had enjoyed every minute spent in Dixon.—Percy W. Busby, Press Correspondent.

URIC ACID IN MEAT BRINGS RHEUMATISM

Says a little Salts in water may save you from dread attack.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water. Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and salts of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

POLITICAL HARMONY DUE TO PRINCIPLE

story we have yet achieved.

One other thing, and then I am through, and that is, we would be blind indeed if we did not heed some of the lessons of the mighty war. Thoughtful men everywhere, not only in America, but in Europe, know that democracy is again on trial. We thought when the Civil War was over that the right of men to govern themselves had been established forever, but use the real contest during those four awful years was whether men were capable of governing themselves. Lincoln saw that, and that strife was not over slavery; slavery perhaps was the occasion of it, but the real issue involved was whether or not a democracy could survive. And now men say, when they see the tremendous efficiency that other forms of government have evolved in this war, that democracy, to survive, must show that it has, too, efficiency; that it, too, can care for its people in times of peace, as efficiently as Germany has done, and that, if, which God forbid, war should come, it, too, can defend its hearthstones against every foe. There never was a time in all its glorious history that the republican party had such an obligation resting upon it, such a solemn duty to discharge, as it has in these days, because the future of democracy throughout the world, if it is to triumph, must triumph through the instrumentality of the republican party, as I believe with all my heart.

STERLINGS' PHARMACY, DIXON, ILL.

Dear Sirs:—

Some weeks ago we were awakened suddenly during the night by the unusual coughing of our boy. His distress was so apparent that we become immediately frightened and hardly knew what to do. We solicited aid from a very dear neighbor over the telephone and this kind friend suggested that we get a bottle of your white pine cough syrup with menthol.

We immediately telephoned to your store and you sent a bottle of this cough remedy without delay, we took your word that it was safe to give to children. The first dose brought relief and after the second dose our boy was soundly sleeping did not wake up again all night with a cough nor have we seen any trace of this cough since.

This circumstance prompts us to congratulate You on the value of your "White Pine Cough Remedy". You can rest assured if our word may ever be in need we will give our recommendation to your Cough and Cold Remedy any time we may.

Yours Very Truly,

Mrs. Happy Mother.

The Cough remedy can be produced only at Sterlings' Pharmacy,—as we make it,—sell it—and guarantee it. Sent on receipt of price.

BRITAIN LOSES TWO WARSHIPS

French Liner Is Sunk, Supposedly by Submarine.

SWEDEN IS REMOVING MINES

British Destroyer Coquette and Torpedo Boat No. 11 Destroyed by Striking Mines—Submersible, Believed Operating Along Havre, Is Thought to Have Sent Down the Liner.

London, Mar. 11.—Two British warships have been sunk by mines, with a loss of forty-five lives, and the French Liner steamer Louisiana has been torpedoed. All on board the liner, which carried 800 passengers, were rescued.

The British admiralty made the following announcement:

"The torpedo-boat destroyer Coquette, Lieutenant Vere Seymour, R. N. R., in command, and his majesty's torpedo-boat No. 11, Lieutenant John A. T. Leigh, R. N., have struck mines off the east coast and sunk. The casualties were: Coquette, an officer and twenty-one men; the torpedo-boat, three officers and twenty men.

The normal complement of the Coquette was sixty men, Torpedo-boat No. 11 ordinarily carried thirty-five men.

"The Coquette was built in 1897. She was 210 feet long and 19½ feet beam. She displaced 355 tons. Her armament consisted of one 12-pound gun, five 6-pound guns and two torpedo tubes.

"Torpedo-boat No. 11 was built in 1906. She was 172 feet long and displaced 252 tons. She was armed with two 3-inch guns and three torpedo tubes.

Torpedo Sinks Liner.

A dispatch from Havre says the Louisiana sank Thursday night at 11 o'clock. It is presumed that the vessel was sunk by the same submarine that has been operating along the coast between Boulogne and Havre and which torpedoed the Hermatice.

The Louisiana was one of a great fleet of liners owned by the French General Transatlantic company and registered at Havre. She had been in service between French and American ports.

The Louisiana was built in 1905 and displaced 5,109 tons. She was 369 feet long and had a 47-foot beam. She was modernly built and equipped with wireless.

The Louisiana had arrived from New Orleans, which port she left on Feb. 11, entering Newport News on Feb. 17 and leaving on the following day.

STOCKMEN PUSHING CLAIMS

Want Compensation on Cattle Killed Because of Mouth Disease.

Springfield, Ill., Mar. 11.—Farmers and stockmen whose cattle have been slaughtered recently by the state to prevent spread of the foot-and-mouth disease are urging Governor Dunne to help them collect their claims.

State Treasurer Russel has said he would not pay warrants drawn against the $100,000 appropriation by the second special session of the legislature, as his attorney had advised him the bill was invalid in the form it was passed. Treasurer Russel indicated he would welcome a court action to compel him to pay the claims from the appropriation, as a writ of mandamus would relieve him from responsibility.

OPPOSES PLAN OF BORDEN

Lord Shaughnessy Says Canada Needs Men for Farms.

Montreal, Mar. 11.—Opposition to Sir Robert Borden's plan to raise the Canadian contingent in the European war to 500,000 men was voiced by Lord Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific railroad company, at a meeting of business men held here.

Lord Shaughnessy said he does not regard the plan as practicable, and that if Canada is to attempt to raise 225,000 men, the working population would be depleted seriously. He announced that the agricultural department has asked the railroad for aid in taking 10,000 farmers to the western provinces to seed and harvest the crop, which indicates, he said, what a shortage of men Canada now has.

Plan to Exchange Prisoners.

Stockholm, Mar. 11.—It is announced that the exchange of incapacitated Russian and German military prisoners will be resumed on April 2. One train weekly will be run each way via Sweden. During May it is expected that three or four trains of prisoners will be exchanged each week.

Cox Seeks Ohio Governorship.

London, Ohio, Mar. 11.—Former Governor James M. Cox in the presence of the Madison County Wilson club tossed his hat into the ring as a candidate for the governorship.

DIXON PEOPLE WILL DO WELL TO REED THE WARNING

To have good health, the digestion, heart, lungs and kidneys must work perfectly. When there is anything wrong with the digestion, heart or lungs, a very noticeable pain gives prompt warning. Kidney trouble is more easily overlooked, however, and too often gains a long start. But kidney trouble does give early signs, and backache, headache, dizzy spells, rheumatic pains, too frequent, scanty or painful urination should not be neglected. When these warnings appear, use Doan's Kidney Pills, the reliable, success, strongly recommended kidney remedy. Assist the medicine by taking things easier, reducing the diet and the use of liquors. A severe attack of kidney disease may be avoided. Doan's Kidney Pills have won the grateful praise of Dixon people. Read this Dixon resident's endorsement.

Mrs. J. L. Fine, 1006 Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "I have suffered for years from kidney trouble. My back ached and pained so severely that I had to stay in bed. I had headaches and dizzy spells and specks appeared before my eyes. My wrists and ankles also swelled. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug store and they helped me. They have never failed to give satisfactory results."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Fine had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

MONARCH BRAND BAKED BEANS In Tomato Sauce.

Bostonians gave great impetus to this unpretentious food when they placed it on a pedestal—they gave it another push into favoritism when they hit upon Monarch Catsup as a substitute for the ordinary tomato sauce in canning the beans.

Academic Dress.
Academic dress is a sort of scholar's badge consisting of gowns, hoods and caps, copied or adapted from styles long prevalent in England, the combination of articles being so arranged as to indicate the degree or academic status of the wearer. The code was formulated by an intercollegiate college commission chartered by the University of New York and has been adopted in many American colleges. There are three distinct types of gowns and hoods—the bachelor's, the master's and the doctor's. The bachelor's gown is most commonly worn and has long pointed sleeves; the master's gown has long closed sleeves with a slit through which the forearm protrudes; the doctor's gown has velvet bars or round open sleeves and velvet facings down the front. Caps worn with such gowns are the regulation mortar boards with black silk tassels.—Philadelphia Press.

Chinese Architecture.
The monuments of China are among the most conspicuous in the world. Interpreted broadly they range from a coin or an oracle bone to the Great wall. China has more than 2,000 important specimens of the pagoda, an original form of tower architecture unsurpassed for beauty by any similar kind of structure. The Porcelain tower at Nanking deserved to be ranged with the wonders of the world, and for reasons which made it the superior of the so called seven wonders. Chinese sculpture has never been surpassed, and there is no evidence in mundane art to show that it ever will be. There is a single fragment in the Metropolitan museum in New York—a stone head of the Tang period—whose grandeur of plastic mastery since its appearance has conferred distinction upon the sculpture of the world.—Journal of the American Asiatic Association.

His College Handicap.
"I remember when it was really a disadvantage to have had a technical mining education," said John Hays Hammond. "I remember going to one of the large mining magnates of the day in California, who had got his information and experience by hard knocks, and asking for a job. He said: 'There is one serious objection to you. You have been at Freiburg, and you know you have to unlearn a good deal when you get into active practice.' I am sorry to say there is a great deal of truth in that too. 'Well,' I said, 'I will tell you in confidence, but do not repeat this to my poor father, who has made every sacrifice to send me abroad for a mining education—I did not learn a confounded thing at Freiburg.' Then he said, 'I will take you.' And that was the first job I ever got."

The Inns of Chancery.
Most of the old inns of chancery are no more. Clement's inn, where Falstaff and Shallow heard the chimes at midnight. New Inn, of which Sir Thomas More was a member; Lyon's inn, where Coke once taught the students; Furnival's inn, where Charles Dickens lived; Thavies inn, which was one of the earliest of all the legal settlements in London; Barnard's inn, where Lord Chief Justice Holt was among the "principals"—all these historic places have "in the change and chance of time" disappeared from view. Staple inn remains in its ancient state by the good will of the insurance company that purchased it a number of years ago.—London Law Journal.

Good Reason.
In his book about his distinguished father the son of Louis Agassiz tells a story that relates to the life of the great scientist in America. A few years before his death he came into his house in Cambridge delighted with an occurrence he had just seen in Boston. A carriage pushing through the crowd had knocked down a woman. Her escort proceeded to pummel the driver. "But why," asked the listener, "didn't the owner come to his driver's assistance?" "Oh," exclaimed Agassiz, "I was holding him."

Wasted Apology.
"One day," says a London journalist, "the late Walter Emanuel called on me and chatted delightfully. After half an hour the humorist said he must go and apologized for having wasted so much valuable time."
"Don't mention it," I rushed to reply. "It has been a pleasure."
"Oh, it's not your valuable time I'm thinking of," said Mr. Emanuel as he picked up his hat. "It's mine!"—Exchange.

Caffeine.
Caffeine, the active principle of coffee, was discovered by Runge in 1820. In a pure state it takes the form of long silky needles. In ordinary coffee it is present to the extent of about 1 per cent, but Java coffee contains 4.4 and Martinique has as much as 6.4.

Setting Her Right.
"Aunt Rachel—I see you've patched it up with Archie and he's coming here again oftener than ever. He's asked you to marry him fifty times, hasn't he? Miss Mandy—Oh, dear, no, aunt, but I suppose he has asked me fifty times to marry him."

Where Are They?
Where are those musical children of yesterday whose musical education was complete when he had learned to play "The Maiden's Prayer" and "Monastery Bells?"—Life.

I'll bind myself to that which, once being right, will not be less right when I shrink from it.—Kingsley.
